Carmel College uses cookies on www.carmel.ac.uk. By using the Service, you consent to the use of cookies.

Our Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, how third parties we may partner with may use cookies on the Service, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

What are cookies

Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the website or a third party to recognise you and make your next visit easier and the website more useful to you.

How Carmel College uses cookies

When you use and access the website, we may place a number of cookies files in your web browser.

We use cookies for the following purposes: to enable certain functions of the website, to provide analytics, to store your preferences. We use both session and persistent cookies on the Service and we use different types of cookies to run the website: Essential cookies. We may use essential cookies to authenticate users and prevent fraudulent use of user accounts.

Third party cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we may also use various third parties cookies to report usage statistics of the website.

Google Analytics

A web analytics service provided by Google. These cookies allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works and is structured.

What are your choices regarding cookies

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser.

Please note, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer, you may not be able to store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly.
