BSc (Hons) Midwifery

I am currently studying BSc (Hons) Midwifery at Edge Hill University which is such a competitive course. There were over 700 applicants for the course and only 27 places. I am absolutely loving my time here and I have just completed my first Midwifery placement on community and I am getting ready for my next placement in February on delivery suite.

The courses at Carmel enabled me to learn a lot of the skills and knowledge needed to become a midwife. The tutors were absolutely fantastic, they were always supportive and great to talk to if I ever needed help and guidance.
