

ALUMNI PROFILE

ANNA BEGLEY

2015 - 17

My tutors at Carmel helped me believe that I could aim for an Oxbridge university. They provided me with the support I needed to make it through the application process and achieve the required grades.

"At Cambridge I studied Law for two years and then Sociology and Social Anthropology for two years, graduating with a BA.

During my time there I enjoyed learning from renowned academics as well as focusing on extracurricular activities such as founding the UN Women UK Cambridge society, coaching my college netball team and playing varsity Korfball.

I now work for the Department of Health and Social Care as a policy officer, where I brief ministers and draft government strategy."
