

- Las chicas del Cable (1930s Madrid, women's rights)
  - Casa de Papel
  - Elite (youth issues)
- Narcos (drug trafficking)
- Velvet (1950's Spain)
  - Gran Hotel

Pick a series. Watch with Spanish audio with English subtitles. Try and listen for language and patterns you recognise. Remember they will speak very fast as these are series for Spanish speakers – but this is an excellent way to practise listening skills based on some topics studied at A level (in brackets).

Part of the A level Spanish course will require you to understand about issues (past and present) in the Spanish speaking world. You can use your time to read ahead on some of these things:

- The Spanish Civil War (1936-39)
https://youtu.be/6gJPYIUU\_zU
- The Franco dictatorship (1939-75)
- Racism in Spanish La Liga football
- #8M Dia Internacional de la mujer
- Bullfighting in Spain – create a for and against poster

Kahoot

Duolingo

Memrise

Hoyhablamos.com

Español en Carmel:
¿Qué puedo
hacer antes de septiembre?

- Make some Spanish Tapas
- Keep a Spanish diary

Fill out a bullet journal in Spanish with thoughts, emotions and activities each day

– practise your preterite/ imperfect tenses

- Research a Spanish city (Madrid, Malaga, Sevilla) and create a travel guide
- Read, copy and illustrate a Pablo Neruda poem and research him and his life

J. Balvin

Shakira

Becky G

Nicky

Calle 13

Jam

Luis Fonsi

Enrique Iglesias

Reggaeton

#yomequedoencasa (coronavirus en España)

#laculturaentucasa

@bbcmundo

@espanolextra

www.rtve.es (Spanish version of BBC iPlayer)