

A LEVEL

Film Studies

Broaden your knowledge and understanding by analysing a variety of films

Learn about the film industry and develop your own film-related skills

Develop a wide-range of transferable skills for future study or employment

YOU WILL STUDY

- A diverse range of films, including documentary, film from the Silent Era, experimental film and short film
- Film practices from a historical, national and global context
- Films' relationships with social, political, cultural, historical and technological contexts
- How films generate meanings and responses
- Film as an 'art' form
- The concept of 'spectatorship'
- Relevant theories of film consumption and production.

ASSESSMENTS

- Examination at the end of year two - 70%
- Coursework (either filmmaking or screenwriting) - 30%

SUPPORTING YOU

- Dynamic and engaging classes delivered by experienced staff
- Additional tutorials to enhance knowledge
- Regular revision sessions before exams
- Access to a dedicated computer suite
- Film equipment for student loan

PROGRESSION

- You can progress to higher education, a degree apprenticeship or employment
- Many students opt for a directly related or wider creative arts/humanities HE course.

Imagine what you can become

Screenwriter → Film Editor → Journalist

Camera Operator → Film Archivist

Freelance Film Maker

Bauer International Workshop

Extra-curricular

Workshops by industry professionals

Film and journalism competitions

Trips and visits (e.g. New York)

Talks from guest speakers / universities and external workshops

Filmmaking skills enrichment

New York Trip

2023 RESULTS

A*-B 53% / A*-C 90% / A*-E 100%

SCAN HERE

FOR FULL COURSE DETAILS

EXAM BOARD

EDUQAS

“

My Experience

“In Film Studies the engaging and active environment within our lessons allowed my knowledge and love for the subject to expand greater than I ever expected.

The film, music, and podcast opportunities that Carmel offers allowed me to delve deeper and improve the understanding necessary for university education.”

Archie Chismall

COWLEY INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE
FILM STUDIES, ENGLISH COMBINED,
HISTORY

carmel college

Prescot Road, St Helens
Merseyside WA10 3AG

www.carmel.ac.uk

Be sociable.

