A LEVEL CLASSICAL CIVILISATION

- Immerse yourself in the ancient world of the Greeks and Romans, and develop an independent and critical approach to literature, history, art, politics, and culture.
- Classical Civilisation is a diverse and timeless subject which is highly regarded by both universities and employers.

YOU WILL STUDY

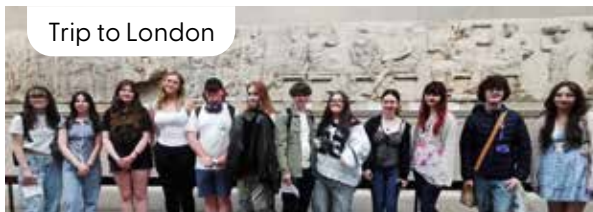

The ancient civilisations of Greece and Rome through their literature, history, art, philosophy, religion, and culture:

- The World of the Hero: Epic stories of mythology and adventure through Homer's Odyssey and Virgil's Aeneid.
- Imperial Image: How Emperor Augustus Caesar used propaganda, art, and literature to build his public image, transform Rome from a republic to an empire, and create a legacy that endured for centuries.
- Greek Religion: An exploration of the core beliefs systems of ancient Greece, including mythology, the relationship between mortals and immortals, rituals and sacrifices, and hero cults.

You will develop sought-after transferable skills in critical analysis, evaluation, visual literacy, judgement-making, and independent research. This diverse subject particularly complements History, English Literature, Politics, Theology, Philosophy & Ethics and Art subjects.
