

Psychology

An engaging subject taught by enthusiastic, experienced staff

The scientific study of the mind and human behaviour

Develop skills valued by universities and employers, including critical analysis, independent thinking and research

YOU WILL STUDY

- Memory
- Attachment
- Social Influence
- Psychopathology
- The Approaches
- Biopsychology
- Research Methods
- Issues & Debates
- Cognition and Development
- Schizophrenia
- Forensic Psychology

PROGRESSION

- A transferable subject providing a variety of skills
- Over a third of our students progress onto Psychology degrees with the intention of becoming psychologists
- Students have also progressed on to careers in medicine, vet science and a range of health professions, dentistry, law, teaching, business, sport and the media to name but a few.

Imagine what you can become

Neuropsychologist → Forensic Scientist

Occupational Therapist → Psychologist

Clinical Technician → Human Resources Manager

Advertising Director

ASSESSMENTS

Three examinations at the end of year two

Paper 1: Introductory topics in Psychology

Paper 2: Psychology in context

Paper 3: Issues and options in Psychology

SUPPORTING YOU

- Well-qualified, enthusiastic and experienced staff including AQA examiners
- A variety of teaching and learning styles
- High quality learning resources tailored to students' needs
- One-to-one and group tutorials
- Assessments against exam criteria and constructive feedback
- Regular progress meetings and action plans for continuous improvement
- 'Stretch and Challenge' activities for our more able learners

TRUE LIFE CONFERENCES

Life Behind Bars Conference

Extra-curricular

Workshops and lectures from guest speakers and practitioners

Trips and visits

Specialist lectures organised by the exam board

2023 RESULTS

A*-B 49% / A*-C 78% / A*-E 99%

SCAN HERE

FOR FULL COURSE DETAILS

EXAM BOARD

AQA

My Experience

“Studying Psychology has been a really interesting and informative experience. I have developed knowledge on topics that have always intrigued me as well as new fascinating ones that I had never really thought about.

I found that the topics covered are really intriguing and are taught in a way which makes it easier to retain and revise. The teachers are always encouraging and available to help and support making the experience easier and more enjoyable.”

Ryan Lowe

HOPE ACADEMY
PSYCHOLOGY, SOCIOLOGY,
CRIMINOLOGY