I found Carmel was a really great place to be and I had multiple opportunities to do extra-curricular activities that definitely helped me get into university, as well as being a lot of fun to do.

“University is a big step up but despite the circumstances, I'm still enjoying the experience massively. I definitely don't regret choosing to go, even with all the COVID restrictions, as I've still managed to get involved as much as possible, for example as an Academic Representative for my course, Politics. The course content is definitely my area of interest which makes it a lot more fun to study too.

After Uni, I'm hoping to apply for the Civil Service Fast Stream or pursue a job in government through other routes.”
