

Mairead Redmond

Primary Education

Class of 2015 Alumni

I thoroughly enjoyed attending Carmel College. My experienced tutors were exceptional and inspired my teaching methods that I use in the classroom today as a teacher. They allowed me to think independently and develop my knowledge through debate and modelled assignment writing.

“After finishing my degree at Edge Hill, I worked as a Year 5 teacher in my local area. This academic year, I moved to Dubai and am now teaching at North London Collegiate International Private School in the heart of Downtown Dubai, 3km from the Burj Khalifa.

My time here has been an incredible experience so far. Teaching abroad has enhanced my CPD as well as the ability to teach 2 classes and online learners simultaneously. I've also had the opportunity to take part in great activities, even during Covid! I have skydived and camped in the desert, gaining a work life balance at the weekends.”

Higher Education

Primary Education
Edge Hill University

Studied at Carmel

Sociology	A
ICT	A
Religious Studies	A

High School

Cardinal Newman

