

Adam Cao

Trading Systems Consultant

Class of 2019 Alumni

Higher Education

Computer Science
King's College London

Studied at Carmel

Art and Design	A*
Computer Science	A
Mathematics	A
EPQ	C

High School

Childwall Sports and Science Academy

Carmel was the first stepping stone of my journey from sixth form to university and then straight into employment. Without the guidance and care of the teachers at Carmel, I am certain I would not have achieved as much as I have now.

"I'm now a trading systems consultant for a financial services consultancy in London. It's a mix of programming, financial trading expertise and consulting. I consult clients such as investment banks, hedge funds and brokerages on developing low-latency fault tolerant financial trading systems."