After finishing at Carmel, I took a year out to gain international handball experience, moving to Aarhus, Denmark, following my involvement with the Great Britain Men's U18 handball team. In summer 2023, I returned to the UK to study Management at Loughborough University, where I am on track for a First and progressed to the Great Britain Men's U20s. In June, I began my placement year as a Business Analyst at Procure4, a procurement consultancy in Leamington Spa, gaining significant responsibility within a small team. I will return to Loughborough next Autumn to complete my degree, graduating in summer 2027.
